

Henrik Persicke

FRANKFURT TEMPLE OPEN HOUSE COMMITTEE

Henrik Persicke is the person on the Frankfurt Germany Temple Open House Committee responsible for supporting the media and invited guests. He exercises this function in addition to his voluntary church office as a Counselor in the Elders' Quorum Presidency of the Friedrichsdorf Ward and his profession.

He completed his Master's degree in organisational psychology in 2016 in Manchester (in the United Kingdom) after leaving the Goethe University in Frankfurt am Main in 2015 with a Bachelor's degree in educational sciences. Since 2018 he has been working in an internal organisational consultancy of a German transport and logistics concern and has his own part-time business.

Henrik Persicke has had several callings in the church. Following high school graduation he served a two-year full-time mission in Switzerland and southern Germany. Additionally, he has served, amongst others, as Ward Mission Leader, Sunday School President, Ward Executive Secretary, and Young Men Advisor.

Henrik Persicke was born on February 25, 1991 in Bielefeld and grew up in East Westphalia-Lippe. He has been married to his wife Lena since August 2013. They are parents of a son and a daughter and live in Bad Homburg vor der Höhe.
